

Assistant Professor of Music Therapy
Full Time One Semester Contract for

Queens University of Charlotte invites applications for a one semester contract position as an assistant professor in music therapy for the spring of 2010. The review process will begin immediately.

Qualified candidates will have a minimum of a Master's Degree in Music Therapy or a related field and will be a Board-Certified Music Therapist with a minimum of three years of clinical experience beyond the internship.

The successful candidate will have demonstrated excellence in teaching and clinical practice with a passion for undergraduate education for both traditional and adult students. Furthermore, the candidate will possess the ability to assess and implement treatment plans for group and individual music therapy sessions for persons of all ages encompassing a wide range of needs. Current curriculum is at the undergraduate level with plans to add a graduate degree in 2011. We encourage application from candidates in any area of clinical specialization, although we are particularly interested in applicants with interests in children's populations.

The university is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, to the diversity and excellence of the academic community. Queens is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from underrepresented groups including minorities, women, and persons with disabilities.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Candidates should submit via email to hr@queens.edu all of the following

- (1) a letter of interest,
- (2) current resume or curriculum vitae,
- (3) salary requirements or history, AND
- (4) three letters of reference.

Be sure to include YOUR NAME and "Ref: CAS-PMSTH" in your email subject line.

ABOUT QUEENS

Queens University of Charlotte is a private, co-ed, Presbyterian-affiliated comprehensive university with a commitment to both liberal arts and professional studies. Located in the heart of historic Charlotte, Queens serves approximately 2,300 undergraduate and graduate students through its College of Arts and Sciences, the McColl School of Business, the Presbyterian School of Nursing, the Wayland H. Cato, Jr. School of Education, the School of Communication and the Hayworth College.

Queens University of Charlotte is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or any characteristic protected by law. Queens is committed to recruiting, hiring, and promoting qualified minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans. Any individual with a disability who needs any reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act to apply for a position or otherwise to participate in Queens' job search/selection process should contact the Director of Human Resources at 704-337-2297 or hr@queens.edu